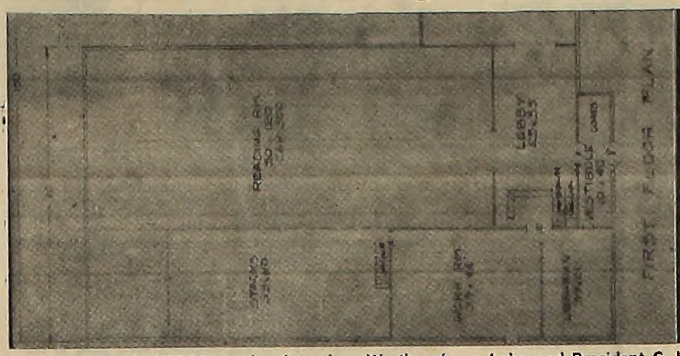
ALC Exec Aids Big Advance In Library Planning



LOOKING AHEAD to tha day whan Wartburg's naw Library Building will pass from the drawing board into tha building stage ara College Librarian Parna Lohn and Prasident C. H. Becker. Floor plan at laft is tha first of many that will ba submittad, discussed, revised and resubmitted in the coming weaks.

Initial Plans To Architect

Plans for the new college library were greatly advanced this week as college officials met on campus with Dr. William Young, executive secretary of the Board of Higher Education of the American Lutheran Church.

Main purpose of the meeting was to determine by means of s survey what facilities are needed and what could be included in the proposed structure. The ALC has allocated only $250,000 for this building.

Campus architects Woodburn and O'Neil, Des Moines, submitted preliminary sketches for the building. Rough drafts were also submitted to the group by librarian Perna Lohn as well as Dr. Young.

FAST DRAW. Architects were instructed to incorporate ideas from all three sketches and to present plans for a library building as soon as possible.

Present plans call for the construction of only the first unit of a proposed two-unit structure. Construction has been tentatively scheduled to commence sometime next year.

According to plans and recommendations submitted, the first unit of the new library will have about double the area of the present Luther Hall library. The second unit would be of approximate equal size.

Dr. Young

'WEST BEST.' Location of the building is still indefinite. Campus planners Morrell and Nichols of Minneapolis have recommended a site directly west of Luther Hall where the Trailer Court is presently located.

Present total size of the college library is 7,080 square feet. Of this, 3,974 square feet is available for student use.

Seating capacity of the present library is 190 for all areas. Total number of volumes is about 35,000.

LIST MEMBERS. Members of the joint Faculty-Regents Building Committee include President C. H. Becker, chairman, Regents Walter Voecks and the Rev. Erwin Schlachtenhaufen; and faculty members G. R. Bjorgan, Dr. Elmer Hertel and Dr. Edwin Liemohn. Business manager H. C. Engelbrecht is also on the committee.

Students Vote Project Funds

Hear Pop Concert Report From Vogel; Choice To Dorsey Or Armstrong

Disposal of last year's Student Body Project funds, a popular Concert report and disposition of this year's project funds furnished the gist of Thursday's Student Body meeting.

Students voted to purchase a public address system for the new athletic stadium with the remaining funds from last year's Student Body Project. A surplus of $662 was left over from last year's project—the Hi-Fi for the Student Union.

PA $560. Reporting on the PA system, Vice President Ed Schneider told students that the system would cost about $560. Students also voted to put the remainder in the Union record fund.

Schneider

Pop concert chairman Stan Vogel told students that the choice for this year's student concert had been narrowed down to Jimmy Dorsey and Louis Armstrong. Tentative dates available are May 8 for Dorsey and May 20 for Armstrong.

ARMSTRONG HIGH. Reason cited by the committee for delay was the high fee sought by Armstrong. The committee is negotiating for a lower rate.

Inaugurated last year, the pop concert brought the Crew Cuts to the Wartburg campus. Proceeds from the appearance were placed in a special concert fund.

As soon as definite word is received, the committee will present its recommendation to the Senate. It is expected a vote will be taken in convocation next week.

CHEST OUT. In other student government action, Student Body President Don Altmann reported that students turned down a proposed campus chest drive for this year by a vote of 111 to 149.

Altmann also announced this week that nominations are now open for Student Body offices. Officers to be elected include a president, vice president and secretary.

General qualifications for the offices include a 2.5 grade point for the last three semesters, which must have been spent at Wartburg. Deadline for filing for nomination is Friday, according to Herbie Hafermann, Elections Committee chairman.

Students voted to use funds from this year's Student Body Project drive to furnish the lounge in the new wing of Centennial Hall. Funds gathered were insufficient to furnish both lounges in the men's and women's dorms.

Defeated was an effort to use funds to furnish the lounge in the planned men's dorm. However, this lounge will be furnished with funds raised by the Development office.

Music Clinic Coming Up

Strings will be emphasized Saturday, April 6, as the Wartburg College Instrumental Music Department plays host to a special orchestra clinic.

According to Ernest Hagen, Wartburg band director, high school orchestras in this area have been invited to attend this clinic. Morning sessions will open with a clinic by the University of Iowa String Qusrtet.

The afternoon sessions will feature rehearsals by the massed string orchestra and a selected string ensemble. At 7:30 Saturday evening, an orchestra concert will be featured.

Each of four groups will play one number, the massed ensemble will perform two works and the selected orchestra will be heard in one.

Spring Has Sprung!

Snow or no, the TRUMPET will take its spring hiatus along with the rest of the college beginning March 22.

Next edition of the campus weekly will roll off the presses on April 6.

Fortress, Tales Near Completion As Work Ends

John Polis, editor of Castle Tales,' announces that the literary magazine has been sent to the Trades Publishing Co., Albert Lea, Minn., for final printing.

This year's copy will contain approximately fifty pages. A smaller type is being used so that a greater amount of the material submitted by the students can be utilized. Castle Tales should be available for distribution about the middle of April.

The final deadline has been met and the 1957 edition of the Fortress, college yearbook, is on its way to the publishers.

Myers Yearbooks, Topeka, Kan., is the publisher this year. Fortress editor Dick Larson, senior, announces that the yearbooks will arrive on campus May 15 and students may pick up their copy at that time.

Dallas Johnson Picked For Greek Trip, Nominated By ALC, Chosen By NLC

Dallas Johnson, Wartburg freshman recently selected by Dr. Marcus Rieke, youth director of the American Lutheran Church, as the ALC's nominee for the Greek Village Team, has been notified that he has been chosen over other Lutheran church nominees to be the National Lutheran Council's choice for this team.

Bernard A. Confer, Secretary of the Department of Lutheran Service for the National Lutheran Council, announced that he is forwarding Johnson's nomination to the Rev. Bengt Hoffman, director of the Department of World Service for the Lutheran World Federation, for approval.

Should Hoffman, whose office is in Geneva, Switzerland, approve the selection of Johnson as the U.S. member of the Greek Village Team, Johnson would probably leave for Greece at the end of this summer.

The Wartburger has been selected for this nomination because of his leadership and service in the Luther League of the ALC and because of his knowledge of and interest in agriculture as a result of work on his father's farm.

In addition to having served as Luther League president of the Central Federation of the Minnesota District for four years, Dallas is also a member of the International Luther League Service Project Committee. Johnson's home is in Bird Island, Minn.

For Convo? You!

Did you ever get the urge to stand up in the middle of Convocation and ask the speaker just what he was talking about? Probably you have and like the rest of us have squelched the desire and contented yourself with just muttering about the injustice of it all.

Tuesday you can stop squelching your feelings.

On that morning the Convocations Committee is trying something radically different from previous Convocations. During this open forum convo there will be no formal speaker, no introductions — there won't even be a central theme. It will be up to you to supply all of those things.

If you have any questions about any phase of campus activity that you would like to have answered, or if you have a pet theory or opinion that would be of general interest to the students, faculty and staff of the college, this is your chance.

Here are the ground rules:

1. The convo will be called to order and regulated by the moderator, Charles Diekson of the Speech Department.

2. Anyone — that's right, anyone — may advance a question or opinion by simply rising, being recognized by the chairman, stating his name and his question or opinion.

3. Questions may be directed toward a specific person or addressed to the group generally. In the latter case the moderator will refer the question to someone or ask for answers from the floor.

4. Questions or opinions must be of general interest to the Student Body, staff and faculty of the college. The moderator will rule on propriety.

5. Questions will not necessarily be interpreted as reflecting the personal opinion of the speaker.

6. Anyone may volunteer to answer a question or reply to a statement. Answers however should be limited to three minutes. Naturally, anyone may decline comment.

In laying down these ground rules the Convo Committee had a two-fold purpose in mind: To bring to light reasons for present practices in the various fields of campus activity and to provide for a fluent interchange of ideas and opinions between students, faculty and staff.

This will not be a gripe session nor will it be geared to permit embarrassment to any person or group.

The potential good that can come out of such a gigantic bull session is immediately apperent. If you make an effort to be a participant rather than a spectator, if you observe the simple rules of the meeting, if you enter it with the attitude that you are going to learn something, it cannot helo but be a success.

Want to know why cafeteria food is handled the way it is? Ask Tuesday. Want to know why we don't have voluntary attendance at convo? Ask Tuesday. Want to know what you are buying when you pay for your activity ticket? Ask Tuesday.

One more suggestion. Think about your question beforehand — write it down if it will help — and be sure you have it worded just right.

Tuesday is your Convocation. Do something with it!

SPEAKING OF SPELLING, it's obvious that the TRUMPET isn't the only one to make typographical errors. By the way, first floor Centennial, Al spells his name BaHlmann.

AND THEN there's the campus Menotti hater, who after viewing the MENC's production, suggested that calls be limited to three minutes.

by Bob LosLo

Boy, am I glad that this is the last issue before Spring Vacation. Thursday morning I went to classes in a sweater and Thursday night it snows. Everybody was optimistic. The Christmas tree in the Cedar River even disappeared.

And hoo hah, gang, the drive-in opens tonight. It might snow, but who pays any attention to the movie anyhow?

The baseball-dating analogy mentioned two weeks ago is getting embarrassing to the fellows from Vollmer. People keep coming up to them to ask them in what league their dates are.

Vollmerians were also a bit worried about the fire last Thursday. They were sure the neighbors were going to call and complain about the noise.

Nice of the administration to let classes out at four for Spring Vacation. That means that the people who live out in the far-reaching outskirts of Wiseonsin, Illinois and the Dakotas (not to mention the Okies and Coloradoans) will have to drive home most of the way in the dark.

That's what's nice about being a columnist. I'm just thinking of the reprisals I'll hear about the above paragraph.

Members of Wartburg Players enjoyed "The Telephone" just a little more than the rest of the audience because for once they could sit out on the other side of the footlights without having a thing to do with the production.

I've quit complaining. I just realisad that the knight has to come down for Homecoming next year.

Problem: How to put out a four-page paper for an eight-page college and keep the various departments from complaining about how little material they are getting in the paper and how much all the other departments are getting. The bickering reminds you of the professor who thinks his is the only course you are taking.

Ash Wednesday Opens Chapter Of New Book

By Doug Soley

Wednesday, March 6, was to the Christian Church not an ordinary weekday. It had special significance. We called it Ash Wednesday, the beginning of the Lenten season. Ash Wednesday opens a new chapter in the Christian's life.

During this chapter, many things can happen. What happens depends entirely upon the individual Christian. One can come closer to the Father and the Son during this Lenten season if he so desires.

Soley

First, the Lenten season gives the individual the supreme opportunity to examine himself. Paul tells us to "examine ourselves in order that we might be worthy to eat and drink of His Body and Blood." We need, then, to open our hearts like a book and to find out what thoughts dwell in our hearts.

Second, the season of Lent permits us to discipline our minds and bodies for Christ. We should make a special attempt to discipline our minds and bodies out of love for Christ. This, if done out of love for Christ, will not be an outward show as did the Pharisee who was glad that he was not like the publican.

We now know what to do, but the question which then comes to our minds is "With my mortal body, how can I attempt to accomplish a spiritual task such as this?"

Prayer can be our answar if we use it diligently and sincerely. For we know the words of Christ, "Ask and it will be given you. . . for everyone who asks receives." We also know this should not be done selfishly. What we ought to do in this mattar is to "Seek the will of the Lord."

The Lenten season can mean much to us if we really love Christ. If we love Christ, we will serve Him. If we will serve Him, we will serve the will of God.

'Sharpest Shooting' Knights Shatter Seven School Marks

By Duane Schroeder
Sports Editor

The 1956-57 Wartburg College Knights have gone into the record books as the best-shooting basketball club in the history of the school. Seven new marks were entered in the Wartburg records this season.

Two Coloradoans, Art Margheim, 5'10" senior guard from Windsor, and John Adix, 6'2" junior guard from Denver, helped the Knights eclipse seven school scoring records during the past season.

Margheim scored 390 points to run his three-year total to 1236 counters establishing him as the seventh highest all-time scorer in Iowa college basketball. Margheim, elected for the third straight year to the first team all-conference list, moved ahead of Bill Adix, who formerly held the Wartburg mark of 1,179 points.

ADIX 330. Adix, named honorable mention in the conference, scored 330 points to help the Knights finish in the runner-up spot in the conference for the second year in a row.

Knights, headed by Ax Bundgaard, scored 2,058 points, a school record, while winning 19 games, also a record, and losing 6. The former school record for total points was 2,046 set last year, and for wins it was 17 set in the '51-'52 season and tied in '54-'55 and '55-'56.

Bundgaard's charges picked up 10 of those 19 wins in a row to eclipse the old winning streak of nine set in 1951-52.

GOALS GALORE. While establishing their winningest season on record, the Knights scored 789 field goals, breaking the record of 776 set last year, out of 2,021 attempts for a percentage of 39.0, which was better than the record 36.9 per cent shot last year.

Knights also broke last year's free-throw average of 64.4 per cent by dumping in 65.3 per cent of their charity tosses this year.

Ten Knights went over the century mark in scoring as well as helping the ball club finish first in the conference in defense. Wartburg held its opponents to a 67.2 average in conference play.

Margheim Feb. Athlete

Athlete Margheim

* * * * *

Athlete of the month honors go to senior basketball guard Art Margheim as W Club members join in honoring Wartburg's sole All-conference player.

Named for his stellar activities on the basketball court, the 5-foot 11-inch senior led Knight scorers this year with a 14.4 average as he dumped in 390 points in 27 games. From Windsor, Colo., he has won letters in football, basketball and baseball.

Margheim was named All-conference in basketball last week for the third consecutive year. Pouring in a career total of 1,238 points, he became Wartburg's leading scorer as he shattered the previous high total of 1,179, held by Bill Adix.

Breaking into the starting line-up as a sophomore, he held the position for three years. He currently rates as the seventh highest all-time scorer in Iowa college basketball.

Majoring in physical education, he is married to the former Jean Oltman. Future plans include a coaching career.

WARTBURG SPORTS TRUMPET

Norsemen Down Wartburg Stars

Wartburg intramural cagers lost a 69-63 decision to the Luther IM all-stars at Decorah Saturday.

Making the trip were Mel Schlichting, Phil Moeller, Den Dickman, Ken Hartman and Rod Kamper of the championship Grossmann II squad. In addition, Bob Weisboff, Stan Vogel, Gary Medlang, Harry Hinrichs and Joe Sloter were selected by team managers to round out the squad.

Medlang and Dickman meshed 13 tallies apiece to cop scoring honors for the losing Wartburg crew.

Grossmann II captured the intramural basketball crown with a 45-34 win over Alpha House last Friday.

Entries are being accepted for the intramural wrestling tournament, which will be held this week. Entries should be submitted to Charlie Maahs, junior, or Bill Bomboff, senior. A paper will also be posted in Luther Hall for contestants' signatures.

Coronation To Climax Carnival Tonight In Fun Fete Scheduled In Gym At 7:30

By Betty Meyer

Crowning of the Student Body Project Carnival King and Queen will highlight the "International Holiday" being held tonight beginning at 7:30 in the Knights Gymnasium.

Students have been busy since early this morning transforming the gym into a gaily decorated carnival setting. Concessions being built range from a German Beer (Cider) Garden to a Wartburg Players' Side Show.

Parisian Portraits by the Camera Club, Dior's Duds, A World Telegram Service, with messages written in German, Greek or French, Hit the Monkey, Miniature Shuffleboard and numerous other stands will line the sides of the gym.

Their proprietors will be dressed in the costumes of the different countries. Also featured will be a cakewalk. A ticket booth will be located in the middle of the floor. Tickets will be purchased here for use in the different concessions.

'If Elected'. The frenzy of securing votes for the king and queen candidate will come to an end when the voting officially closes at 9:45 p.m.

One floor in Centennial has appealed to the boys for money, selling paper flowers as the boys come to call for the girls and peddling popcorn balls in Grossmann Hall. Car washes have been an additional way of earning money.

The race seems fairly close among the boys as one-cent, two-cent and three-cent fines are paid by the dorm girls in violation of special "rules." A loud-speaker by one queen candidate's fans was an effective way of inducing students to vote for their candidate.

Running for the title of carnival queen are three sophomores and one freshman. Representing Grossmann Hall are Marjorie Clark, sophomore, first floor; Helen Mueller, sophomore, second; and Darlene Arns, freshman, third. North Hall's choice is sophomore Elaine Ranschau.

Seven Kings. Competition is stiffer among the men with seven candidates vying for the king's crown. Al Bahlmann, senior, first floor; John Adix, junior, second; Phil Moeller, junior, third; and Norm Litzner, freshman, basement, are Centennial Hall's candidates. Wartburg Hall is supporting Charles Maahs, junior, first and third floors; Bill Bomhoff, senior, second; and Harold Hinrichs, senior, fourth.

BALLOONS GO up as the carnival committee decorates Knights Gym.

Music – All Kinds – In The Air Soon; Voice And Organ Recitals Are Slated

Two recitals are scheduled next week.

Tuesday, Vivian Rudolf will present her senior organ recital in St. Paul's Lutheran Church at 7:30 p.m. Included on her program will be two Bach chorale-preludes, two numbers by Benoit, a Walther choral and variations and numbers by Mulet and Elgar.

On Thursday, juniors Leroy Buchholz and David Linkey will be presented in recital by the Music Department in the Fine Arts Center. Buchholz is a tenor, while Linkey is a bass. Time for recital is 7:30 p.m.

Debaters Finish Season With 19

Wartburg debate teams completed their regular competitive season last weekend at Cornell College in a tournament sponsored by the Iowa Forensics Association.

Members compiled 19 points to finish in ninth place out of thirteen collegiate teams. Simpson and Iowa State tied with 49 points each for top place in the tournament.

Sophs Iris Heaney and Margie Angell picked up 15 points by winning three out of four debates. The other team composed of frosh Eugene Moll and Dean Engelbrecht, failed to win in four debates.

Miss Heaney also picked up two points on extemporaneous speaking and added one more in the discussion event. Miss Angell's point in discussion rounded out the scoring for the club.

The team's final appearance for this year will be on April 24 when they will participate in a convocation at Augsburg College, Minneapolis.

'Spring Prelude' Set For April 4

"Prelude to Spring" will be the theme of the spring style show, Thursday, April 4, in Knights Gymnasium at 7:30 p.m. The style showing is sponsored by the Wartburg Women's Coordinating Board in cooperation with Neil's of Waterloo.

Sportswear, school attire. Easter outfits and bridal gowns will be included in the showing.

The style show committee is headed by senior Shirley Sekas and freshman Shirley Ehlert. Other committee members include Wanda Karsten, Evelyn Goldenman, Joan Foster, freshmen; Avona Arends, sophomore; and Sharon Folkerts, junior.

Convo To Feature Forum, Earl Hall

A forum involving the entire student body and an address by the editor of the Mason City Globe-Gazette are on the agenda for next week's convo program.

On Tuesday, Charles Dickson of the Speech Department will serve as moderator of a forum designed to provide interchange of ideas and opinions between the students, faculty and staff.

Anything Goes. Purpose of the forum is to bring to light reasons for present practices in the various fields of campus activity. Any member of the Student Body, faculty or staff will be recognized and allowed to direct his question toward anyone present.

"The World Around Us" will be the subject of the address of Earl Hall at Thursday's convo. Hall, who has been editor of the Mason City Globe-Gazette since 1920, is a graduate of the University of Iowa with a doctor of laws degree from Cornell College. A native of Jefferson, Hall served on the Milwaukee Journal before coming to Mason City.

Past Holder. Among the important national and state posts which Hall has held are State Commander of the American Legion, founder of the Iowa State Safety Council, vice-president of the National Safety Council and chairman of the National Committee for Traffic Safety.

Hall has recently returned from a 40,000-mile trip around the world visiting 30 countries.

Sandberg, Moehl To Chicago Meet

Miss Erna Moehl and Dr. Edwin Sandberg, both of the English Department, will attend the national meeting of the Conference on College Composition and Communication in Chicago, March 21-23.

Miss Moehl will attend the workshop on "Adapting a book program to both gifted and inadequately prepared students." Dr. Sandberg will be at a conference on achieving and maintaining adequate standards in communications skills courses.

Dr. Sandberg is presiding at the Cornell College session on objective teaching today. Yesterday he chairmaned a group on English teaching in literature and humanities.

The meeting held at Mt. Vernon is sponsored jointly by Cornell College, the Educational Testing Service and the North Central Association committee on liberal arts education.

"How much life insurance should I have?"

• That's a question many intelligent students are asking their LUTHERAN BROTHERHOOD agent. Of course each student must help to answer it himself . . . so we thought we'd pass along a few "answers" which pop up time after time.

Many thoughtful students say, "I want enough insurance to relieve my family of financial hardship in case something happens to me." Others say, "I can't afford much now, but I want enough insurance on which to build a program of financial security in the future."

Some say they want enough to be protected should they become uninsurable in the future. One said, "I want enough to make me save as much as I know I should."

Whatever your "answer", remember your Lutheran Brotherhood agent — a fellow Lutheran — will be glad to help you by adding his experience and counsel . . . Write . . .
